Camp Floyd and Stagecoach Inn State Park
This former military post located southwest of Lehi quartered the largest troop concentration in the United States from 1858 to 1861. Approximately 400 buildings were constructed to billet over 5,600 troops sent West to suppress an assumed Mormon rebellion. The troops returned East in 1861 for Civil War duty. Today, only a cemetery remains as silent evidence of turbulent Camp Floyd. Nearby Stagecoach Inn was an overnight stop on the historic overland stage and pony express route. A two-story adobe and frame hotel has been restored with original period furnishings. Open daily March 15 through October 31.
